

APPEAL FROM FINAL ORDERS UNDER CIVIL RULES

CH. 980¹, HABEAS CORPUS, CERTIORARI

	BETWEEN	AND	TIME	STAT. SEC.
1.	Commitment order or order or judgment on post-verdict motions, if separate	Filing notice of appeal and docketing statement	90 days unless written notice of entry of judgment filed	808.04(1) 806.06(3) 809.10
2.	Filing notice of appeal and docketing statement	Statement on transcript; ordering transcripts	10 days	809.11(4) 809.16(1)
3.	Ordering of transcript	Filing of transcript	60 days	809.16(3)
4.	Filing of Transcript	Transmission of record	20 days (no more than 90 days after notice of appeal unless enlarged)	809.15(4)
5.	Filing of record	Appellant's brief	40 days	809.19(1)
6.	Filing of appellant's brief	Respondent's brief	30 days	809.19(3) 801.15(1)
7.	Filing of respondent's brief	Reply brief	Within 15 days of service	809.19(4) 801.15(1)
8.	Decision of Court of Appeals	Petition for review	30 days	809.62(1)
9.	Petition for review	Response to petition for review	Within 10 days of service	809.62(3) 801.15(1)
10.	Decision in Supreme Court	Motion for reconsideration	20 days	809.64

INTERLOCUTORY APPEALS

1.	Non-final judgment or order being appealed	Petition and memorandum	10 days	809.50(1) 808.03(1) 809.50(4)
2.	Petition	Response	Within 10 days of service	809.50(2) 801.15(1)
3.	Judgment binding a sexually violent person under sec. 980.05(5)	Petition and memorandum	20 days	980.05(6) 809.50

¹ Ch. 980 appeals must proceed under these civil rules if the petition for commitment was filed before August 1, 2006. Appeals from ch. 980 judgments in cases where the petition for commitment was filed on or after August 1, 2006 must be initiated by filing a Notice of Intent to Pursue Postdisposition Relief within 20 days after the entry of the final order pursuant to Rule 809.30 and sec. 980.038 (4). See "Rule 809.30 Direct Appeal Time Table."